Dear Cy:

This is just a personal word of appreciation for the marvelous presentation on Army research & development you organized for us the other day.

The presentation was unexpectedly broad and informative. I judge that it would have taken me almost six months to have dug out as much information from available sources, so this is a real note of personal appreciation for your Berlitz course in R&D.

I know that everyone else felt the same way, and we will hope to return the favor soon.

Sincerely,

Albert D. Wheelon
